

The best window for your events...

The natural and landscape environment of Gran Canaria, linked to the mildness of the island's climate, guarantees a never-ending range of leisure possibilities that make Gran Canaria the ideal frame for the organization of events.

Gran Canaria is blessed with a wealth of natural resources, the most notable of these being the 60 kilometers of beaches, ranging from the impressive Maspalomas beach, with its oasis of sand dunes right next to the sea, to the concealed and unspoilt beach of Güigüi, as well as the lively beach in the capital, namely the Las Canteras beach. The beauty of its landscapes full of contrasts due to its volcanic origin is obvious, unique scenarios that are completed by 32 protected areas and 8 natural reserves.

The mildness of the island's climate and the absence of extreme temperature variations make it possible to practice practically any type of outdoor sport during any time of the year. Hang gliding, trekking and risky sports to discover the wildest nature of the island. For those who prefer calm sports, there is a great offer for the practice of golf, with six golf courses that are spread out over the island, which are visited throughout the year by international golfers.

Furthermore, if you want to relax, tone up and recuperate your vital energy, the island has a wide offer of Spa&Wellness Centers, with the most advanced techniques and the prestige of being a destination with more than hundred years dedicated to health tourism.
